

It's a Good Day to do Great Things!

At New Hope Center, great things are happening every day.

Our fourth location in Vevay, Indiana opened on January 28. Vevay's very first client made the courageous decision to place her beautiful baby into the arms of a loving family who had waited years and had all but given up on adopting a baby. We knew there was a vital need for a pregnancy care center in Vevay. However, I am not sure we realized just how vital... but God knew.

We are excited to welcome Shannon Wells as our new Falmouth Center Director. Cindy Feldkamp retired at the end of last year and left some big shoes to fill. Shannon is dedicated to providing compassionate care and support for families while ensuring that more mothers and fathers receive the guidance and support they need. Shannon and her team are doing great things in and around Pendleton County.

Camille Cates, our Crestview Center Director, was in Colorado Springs in March taping a Focus on the Family program about her book, Moving Forward After Abortion. I am certain that God is going to do great things through this incredible opportunity to share about hope and healing from the pain of a past abortion, on such a large platform. The media program will air on April 24.

We are grateful for the opportunity to serve and minister to our Hispanic community. Luz Carpenter, Client Support who works with Hispanic mothers and families in our Covington and Crestview Centers. It is a true blessing to be able to share hope, faith, and love without a language barrier.

More than 700 fathers and daughters attended our 16th annual Father Daughter Dances. One father has kept his promise for the past four years to drive eight hours from Virginia so he and his daughters could attend—just one testament of many to the lasting impact of these dances.

What other great things are happening every day at New Hope Center? Babies are being saved, parents are being equipped to thrive (not just survive) and hearts are being transformed. A mother recently shared, "Great attentive staff, caring and very helpful guiding me and supporting me through this time in my life." Mothers are also choosing adoption plans over abortions. This year alone, we have one adoption in its final stages and two more are in the process. We are offering hope, help and life-affirming choices to families in need. These moments remind us—it's always a good day to do great things.

We can't do this without you. Will you stand with us to support life, share hope, and provide help to mothers, fathers, and babies right here in our community? Your gift of any amount today will provide pregnancy tests; ultrasounds, mentoring, parenting classes, cribs, car seats, diapers, formula, and essentials a new mom can't do without.

Every dollar, every moment of your time, every skill you share makes a life-changing impact.

We are not just offering help—we are offering hope. We also need passionate volunteers—people like you—to walk alongside families through some of their most vulnerable moments.

Today we can do great things together—one mother, one father, one baby at a time.

Blessings,

Karen S. Class

New Hope Center is beyond excited to share the success of our recent Father Daughter Dances – unforgettable evenings filled with love, laughter, and lasting memories. Our dances are a celebration of the special bond between fathers (or other significant male role models) and the girls in their lives.

We welcomed over seven hundred guests to our four tea party themed dances where they heard a message from amazing speakers BJ Donahue, Evan Williams, and Daniel Fessler. Everyone enjoyed delicious treats and danced the night away with help from our amazing DJ (Dan Detzel) and dance instructor (Danielle Ashley). The venue was filled with joy as families created memories that will be cherished for years to come.

New Hope was honored to see so many familiar faces and welcome new friends. Guests arrived from as far away as Virginia (550 miles) to be a part of these special nights!

Our dances would not be possible without the generous support of our underwriters, donors, volunteers, and local sponsors. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who made these evenings such a success!

Planning for the 2026 dances has already started. Contact Marla Specht at mspecht@newhopecenter.com or 859-341-0767, ext. 11 if you would like to join the fun!

Oh, the Surprises that Delight!

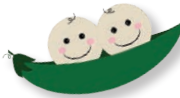

Keturah Barclay, RN

As a nurse practitioner at New Hope Center, I have the profound honor and privilege of performing ultrasounds. This year, we started off with a precious surprise. Our clients, Suzy and Jack, along with Center Director Camille and I, all piled into our cozy ultrasound room, better known as the “miracle room.” When it came time to begin the ultrasound, the couple held hands nervously waiting to see their baby for the first time. As the window to the womb was opened, the first image they saw was their baby’s beating heart. Tears began to flow and laughter filled the room. Throughout the exam, we all marveled at the wiggly little one putting on a show for their mom and dad. As I began to scan for the best position to measure the baby’s heart, I was surprised to see not one but two yolk sacs and then another little foot! Looking over at Camille, we shared a look of shock and I took a breath before letting our clients in on the wonderful discovery. “Although I am not trained to diagnose twins,” I said, “I can tell you I see two babies!” Suzy and Jack shared a look and celebrated the joyous news! We continued the scan measuring double of everything and marveling at the two wiggling babies being knit together by our Creator’s hands.

Now it was time for pictures and video. As always, I asked the couple if they would like to add a fun text to the image. Jack quickly replied, “Double trouble!” Everyone was brimming with joy and laughter.

We continue to come alongside this beautiful family through parenting classes and look forward to meeting these precious babies!

Meet Shannon Wells - our New Falmouth Director

For many years, Shannon worked for a primary care doctor’s office but struggled with the sense that she wasn’t fully using the gifts God has given her. Through her pastor, she heard about the director position at New Hope Center and met with the previous Falmouth director. Through much prayer, she trusted that if God wanted her in this position, He would lead the way, and lead He did! God answered our prayers too – she was hired and has been busy working with clients and doing outreach. Shannon has lived in Falmouth all her life. She and her husband, Tim, have two grown children, Avery and Brett, along with two Labrador retrievers. They are members of Trinity Baptist in Falmouth.

Hitting the Ground Running in Vevay

Brianne Swango, Vevay Center Director

God was at work at the New Hope Center in Vevay before the doors were even open. We received a call from a woman asking for assistance. She was alone, afraid, and had no one else to turn to. With some coaxing, we were able to get her in the door and find her the help she desperately needed. She chose an adoption plan for her healthy newborn baby and blessed another family who had given up all hope of being able to adopt.

We have been meeting with several young ladies in great need of our services. So many of their stories are full of heartbreak, desperation, and struggle. It has not only been a blessing to be able to provide them with baby items, but to watch them breathe a little easier as they walk out of our doors. It’s hard to believe that sometimes a short prayer, a listening ear, and some diapers and wipes are all it takes to ease the soul a little bit. We are excited to be able to offer pregnancy tests and parenting classes and will be offering ultrasounds in just a few months.

Through New Hope Center, we are seeing God work in our small town. People are excited and supportive. When we reach out for a need, someone delivers almost immediately. We have received diapers, wipes, clothes, and so many handmade items. We are so incredibly fortunate to be able to offer this resource to the families in our community and we cannot say “thank you” enough to those who have worked so hard to make this happen.

Focus on the Family highlights Camille Cates and her new book

In March, Crestview Center Director Camille Cates was interviewed by Jim Daly and John Fuller from Focus on the Family regarding her book Moving Forward After Abortion. The media program will air on April 24.

Camille was also blessed to be interviewed by the I Am Pro-Life team regarding their partnership with pregnancy care centers like New Hope. The air date of this program has yet to be determined.
